FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

City Manager Leaving El Centro

El Centro, CA. October 20, 2022 – The City Manager has notified the Council that she will be leaving El Centro for another job opportunity outside the area effective toward the end of November.

“We wish her the best, and are sad to see her go, but support her in her new future endeavor. For that reason, the City is moving forward to review the organization and management of the City Manager’s Office,” stated Mayor Oliva.

A permanent Community Development Director, Police Chief, and Fire Chief will be confirmed at the November 1, 2022, City Council meeting.

Please direct any questions or comments to Cindy De Zilwa, Staff Assistant, in the City Manager’s Office at (760) 337-4540 to receive a response.
